

Isoletta Restaurant

From Friday 25th of April until Sunday, 27th of April
ALL THESE DAYS EXTRA MENU

ORTODOX EASTER AND ITALIAN TRADITIONS

We decided to honour the Orthodox Easter proposing to all our friends some meals specific to the Italian Easter culinary tradition. Even if the celebration dates are different, the value of Orthodox and Catholic Easter are the same. The word "Pascha" in greek language, comes from the hebrew word «pasah» which means "passing". The jews celebrate the Easter as a remember of their liberation from the Egiptians and of crossing the Red Sea and the cristians Catholics or Ortodox celebrate the resurection of their Saver and the passage from death to life. The Jesus Christ resurection day is an ocassion for joy.

Isoletta Restaurant, in addition to its specialities from fresh fish, waits for you with some special meals available in an extra menu at promotional prices:

Macaroani in goat juice
Baked cassecia pasta
Baked kid of milk with potatoes
Casatiello napoletan
Spezzatino of lamb tired
